The Footbolt £11.55 £29.00 £42.00

Joseph Osborn was a successful racehorse owner and Footbolt was the pride of his stable. In 1912 he made the hard decision to sell his horses to purchase the d'Arenberg property. A swirl in the glass and fragrant aromas of dark plum, blackberry fruits, boysenberries, subtle black pepper and a touch of liquorice will come straight up. On the palate is where the wine becomes fascinating. Rich and opulent black fruits, plums, blackberries and boysenberries are intertwined with cured meat, mocha, peppery spices and a plush coat of red cherries.

The Galvo Garage £12.00 £30.00 £44.00 Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Petit Verdot, Cabernet Franc

Garage wines' is a term used to describe wines that are produced in the back sheds of French winemakers, who make small batch wines of the highest quality. The backbone is Cabernet Sauvignon that brings flavours of cassis, roasted capsicum, Liquorice and blackcurrant, making a polished and powerful core. The roundness and soft tannins comes with Merlot. Petit Verdot adds a blue component to the blend bringing blueberries, mulberries and lavender, while the small portion of Cabernet Franc lifts up the vibrancy.

The Derelict Vineyard £12.00 £30.00 Grenache

At a time when Grenache was considered unfashionable, C

At a time when Grenache was considered unfashionable, Chester acquired many old bush vine, overgrown and abandoned vineyards. These vineyards still have a slightly dishevelled, almost derelict appearance, but they are back producing exceptional grenache fruit. Striking notes of rhubarb, raspberry jam and redcurrant. The palate is soft and savoury showing a fuller body style of Grenache. A Grenache that reminds you why McLaren Vale is one of the best regions for this grape variety in the world.

Whites The Hermit Crab Viognier Marsanne

175ml £11.55 500ml Carafe £29.00

Bottle £42.00

Many of McLaren Vale's vineyards are planted on soils underlain with limestone, formed by the remains of the local marine fauna. One such creature was the Hermit Crab. The Osborn family thought the name appropriate for this with it being McLaren Vale's first ever blend of Viognier and Marsanne. "Hermit" is also an abbreviation for the French appellation of Hermitage, where the Marsanne grape variety dominates. Fragrant aromas of tropical fruits like pineapple, melon, white peach and citrus blossom. The palate is far beyond the norm. Clean and fresh flavours of honeydew melon, pear, stone fruits, lemon curd and a characteristic pickled ginger in the end.

The Olive Grove Chardonnay

Since European settlement in the 1840's, olive trees have thrived in McLaren Vale. They run alongside roads, grow in gardens all over the place even in the middle of the d'Arenberg Chardonnay vineyards blocking the harvester! Complex and powerful with layers of stone fruits, white peach, apricot, freshness of melon, oak spices and creamy cashew run through the bouquet and palate alike.

The Money Spider Roussanne

£12.00

£30.00

£44.00

When the first crop from the d'Arenberg Roussanne vines were ready it was covered in a sea of tiny "Money Spiders". Popular belief is that kindness to these little creatures will bring good luck, hopefully in the form of money. Being a nature-lover and slightly superstitious, Chester refrained from removing them from the vines delaying the first release by a year. Since then the "Money Spiders" have moved on making this fantastic wine possible. The nose exhibits a whole array of characters from stone fruits and tropical notes through to nuttiness and an ever so delicate hint of Indian spice. The palate is robust! A luscious mix of pulpy fruit, green mango and papaya.

Rose

The House Of Pink Sangiovese

£11.55

£28.00

£42.00

An Australian Rose just for us! A cousin of d'Arenberg's "Stephanie The Gnome With Rose Coloured Glasses" Rose, so you might be in their house; better mind your P's and Q's. A delightfully refreshing sip, Sangiovese based that brings a pristine salmon-pink rose colour. Fresh red berries on the nose are followed by sunny red-fruit flavours like strawberries, raspberries, cherries and watermelon. The fresh fruit is lifted by a hint of sea spray bringing a vibrant freshness. The finish is light and easy to enjoy.
